WELCOME!

Dear Potential Life Teen Core Member,

Thank you for your interest in serving in our youth ministry! I am seeking talented ministers to serve in our youth ministry program. I believe that substantial ministry is built on relationships between adult staff and teens. Relationships are key to teens feeling loved & accepted so that they can understand the love of God in practical ways.

A Youth Ministry like Edge & Life Teen requires a solid team of volunteers working at all levels – from Core members who lead small groups to those who setup environments and serve food. The challenge of our Life Teen Youth Ministry is to access the wealth and diversity of resources within and around the parish so as to provide a meaningful and an effective faith formation program for adolescents which engages their energy, imagination, curiosity, compassion and playful spirit in an exploration and engagement of our Catholic faith.

Thus, the quality of our youth ministry volunteers is very important. I am looking for men & women who have made a commitment to Christ and a desire to care for teens. With prayer and attention, please read the enclosed materials. Because I place a great value on this ministry, I place a great value on our Core.

Once I have your application, I will contact you to follow up. All of your personal information will be kept strictly confidential. In the meantime, please feel free to pray for and observe our youth ministry programs.

Youth ministry is a great way to give of your time and serve the Lord. I'm looking forward to your application and hearing about your hopes and desires for ministry.

If you have any need to reach me, please feel free to call.

God Bless,
Molly Kate Clavenna

A Youth Ministry Overview

What the Teens Need from Youth Ministry

Changing the youth world happens one teen at a time. Teens do NOT connect to programs; they connect to people. The most effective way to influence teens is through a significant relationship with key people in their lives. Our goal is to develop leaders who will walk the journey to Christ with teens.

Teens need adults who will:

- Love God and live for Him
- Be interested in their lives
- Take the initiative to spend time with them
- Pray for them
- Be authentic (real)
- Say encouraging words
- Believe in them
- Laugh
- Go to “their world”
- Remember their names and care for them
- Share God’s love through personal experience
- Be consistent to the programs
- Be patient
- Enjoy life and live the seven essential values (Love, Evangelization, Joy, Vocation, Affirmation, Authenticity, Eucharistic Spirituality)

How to be Involved in Teen’s Lives

There is a description of the application process later, but first it is important for you to understand what commitment I ask from our staff. For effective youth ministry, you need to:

1. Understand the reason we exist as a youth ministry. Look at our values and goals on the next page.
2. Commit to the Youth Ministry. Consider the role that God has created your gifts to serve in.
3. Grow as a Minister. Develop your abilities through prayer, classes, and conferences. This will ultimately have an impact on the rest of the ministry.
4. Understand the reason we exist as a ministry. To let Christ shine through us so we may gather as a family in His name, seeking to guide all to become a light to the world.

7 Core Values of Life Teen

Love

“We love because He first loved us” – 1 John 4:19. We must strive in all moments and circumstances to love others as Christ loved. This foundation, simple in premise and command, serves as the basis for our ministry.

Evangelization

We speak truth to God’s people, inviting them to know Him more deeply. Driven by a desire for all to know the mercy and love of God the Father.

Joy

We live by an unrelenting belief in the goodness of God, and in His desire not for our momentary happiness, but our everlasting life. The spirit of our Youth and Worship ministries is one of pure joy, keeping life in perspective and allowing the peace of God to reign in our hearts, regardless of what the world might bring at any given moment.

Vocation

We maintain openness to the call of God in our lives and a willingness to discern, respond and prioritize our lives according to that call. Whether designed for the religious, married, or single life, we not only embrace the vocation we were designed for, but insure that it remains primary, not allowing God’s work in ministry to overtake God’s call to holiness.

Affirmation

We refuse to be overwhelmed by the negativity pervading our culture. Words and actions are designed by the Creator to bring life to creation, not death. We make every effort and take every opportunity to build up the Kingdom on Earth, rather than tear it down.

Authenticity

We live authentically, not denying our human weakness or shying away from the need for personal improvement, but working toward holiness, with resolve. The world needs quality examples of Catholic men and women who live out their faith. As leaders in ministry, we live our faith authentically, providing the living example of a Christian and giving hope that others, too, can follow Christ.

A Eucharistic Spirituality

We seek to become one with Christ in all ways. Through a strong devotion to the Blessed Mother, we develop a more profound understanding of Jesus Christ. Through the Holy Scriptures, we grow in sanctity through the Incarnate Word. Through openness to the Charisms of the Holy Spirit, we allow God’s love to permeate this world. Through adherence to the Church that our Lord established, we act in obedience and humility. Through our frequenting of the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist in Most Holy Communion, we become one with the living God. These intimate experiences with Christ are unmistakable signs of His love.

4. Please check whether you accept or do not accept each of the following teachings of the Catholic Church:

- Yes, I accept this teaching
- No, I do not accept this teaching

B. Do you accept the Church's teaching on contraception?

God designed conjugal love between a husband and wife to be a beautiful, selfless, total giving of one to the other, and is open to the transmission of life. Since acts of contraception are not selfless, not a total giving of one to the other and are not open to the transmission of life, contraception, which actually means "against conception" is inherently wrong.

- Yes, I accept this teaching
- No, I do not accept this teaching

C. Do you accept the Church's teaching on the sanctity of life?

All life is sacred and each life from the moment of conception has a right to life, therefore abortion, or any other method of barring a new life from implanting in its mother's womb or terminating a pregnancy is inherently wrong.

- Yes, I accept this teaching
- No, I do not accept this teaching

D. Do you accept the Church's teaching on papal infallibility?

The Pope holds the keys of Saint Peter and Christ endowed the Church's shepherds with the charism of infallibility in matters of faith and morals. When the Church through its supreme Magisterium proposes a doctrine "for belief as being divinely revealed, and as the teaching of Christ, the doctrine must be adhered to with the obedience of faith.

- Yes, I accept this teaching
- No, I do not accept this teaching

E. Do you accept the Church's teaching on pre-marital sex?

God has exclusively given the gift of intercourse to a man and woman who have pledged their lives to one another in marriage as a way of fully giving oneself to the other, being fully open to the transmission of life should God so choose to bestow this blessing

- Yes, I accept this teaching
- No, I do not accept this teaching

F. Do you accept the Church's teaching on the Immaculate Conception?

The most Blessed Virgin Mary was, from the first moment of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege of almighty God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ, Savior of the human race, preserved immune from all stain of original sin.

- Yes, I accept this teaching
- No, I do not accept this teaching
