Praised be Jesus Christ!

We pick up again our catechesis on anointing of the sick. The sacrament, according to canon law, "can be administered to a member of the faithful who, having reached the use of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age." 1004.1. "This sacrament can be repeated if the sick person, having recovered, again becomes gravely ill or if the condition becomes more grave during the same illness." 1004.2.

A recent priest friend of mine was remarking how sometimes it is thought that a priest is too busy to make regular visits, or house calls, to the faithful for holy communion and confession. This couldn't be further from the truth! It is a primary duty of a pastor to visit the faithful who are homebound. If you know of someone who needs a visit by a priest, please contact me at the parish, and I will go and visit them. Just recently we had a seniors meeting, and I met someone who I'm going to start visiting regularly!

From the Baltimore Catechism: Are these changes (water into blood in Egypt, water into wine at Cana, and daily digestion) exactly the same as the changes that take place in the Holy Eucharist? These changes are not exactly the same as the changes that take place in the Holy Eucharist, for in these changes the appearance also is changed, but in the Holy Eucharist only the substance is changed while the appearance remains the same.

This past Sunday began a series of Sunday Gospel readings from the sixth chapter of John's Gospel. It is a little break from Mark's Gospel that we are going through this year. It will continue for some weeks into August and give me an opportunity to preach something like a "homily series" where each week builds upon the previous week. I'm very excited for this and hope our parishioners will follow along each week. For me, this section of John's Gospel was central to my conversion to the Catholic faith. I hope we can grow in a better appreciation for the scriptural basis for the teaching on the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, a deeper understanding of the full meaning of this teaching, and an ability to explain and defend our Eucharistic faith in a compelling way.

In the hearts of Jesus and Mary,
Fr. Matt

Year of St. Joseph Prayer

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our afflictions, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also. Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities. O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness. As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

The official prayer of the Year of St. Joseph—To you, O blessed Joseph (Ad te, beate Ioseph)—was composed by Pope Leo XIII in his 1889 encyclical, Quamquam Pluries. The Holy Father asked that it be added to the end of the Rosary especially during October, the month of the Holy Rosary. This prayer is enriched with a partial indulgence (Source: USCCB)
